

H. R. 370.

[Report No. 440.]

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

AUGUST 1, 1850.

Read twice, and committed to a Committee of the Whole House to-morrow.

Mr. LEVIN, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported the following bill :

A BILL

For the relief of Joseph Radcliff.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Repre-
2 sentatives of the United States of America in Congress
3 assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby
4 authorized to pay to Joseph Radcliff the sum of one thou-
5 sand and eighty dollars, with interest from the twentieth
6 day of August, eighteen hundred and fourteen, out of any 7 money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, in full
8 satisfaction for a raft of timber delivered at the Navy Yard
9 in the District of Columbia, by Captain John Neale, on or 10 about the said twentieth of August, eighteen hundred and 11 fourteen, and which was lost by the conflagration of the 12 yard, on the twenty-fourth of August, in that year ; said
13 timber having been delivered at said yard, under a contract
14 with Captain William Doughty, the constructor for said
15 yard.
